THE VINCENTIAN CORNER

Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home, and sometimes, their home is little more than a sleeping bag.

As we noted in last week’s Vincentian Corner, the combination of the pandemic, the closure of the city’s Emergency Winter Shelter, and a very cold and sometimes wet winter, has put the St. James SVdeP conference at the center of the effort to shelter our unhoused neighbors who are most at risk. We anticipate this will continue through the end of March. Homelessness in Davis is not new, but as our homeless population has grown, we have often heard housed community members complain that the unhoused “don’t live here – why should we help THEM?” We need to stop to ask ourselves: if a person is sleeping in a tent next to the railroad tracks, is he or she not “living” in Davis? If that person spends what little money he or she has in the same local business as a person who owns or rents a residence, which of them “lives” here? Are these neighbors not Children of God? The unsheltered people in our community are our neighbors, and we are called to help them when they are in need. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus says to his disciples, “Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them.” Your donation to the St. James SVdeP as a Lenten sacrifice will show our unhoused neighbors that they do belong and that we truly care for them.

THE VINCENTIAN CORNER

Volunteers and Committee Members Needed for Hospitality After Mass, Beginning April 2nd/3rd

Volunteers are needed to help set up, serve and clean-up drinks and snacks after Masses beginning the weekend of April 2nd and 3rd, and once a month thereafter. This is an easy and fun ministry and a great way to meet new people and visit with your friends. We are also in need of members for a Hospitality Committee to plan and organize the effort. Even if you only have 30 minutes before Mass or 30 minutes after Mass to assist, we need you! This is also a great opportunity for young people in need of community service hours or families looking for a service activity they can do together. To be a volunteer or join the Committee, please call the Parish Office at 530-756-3636 or email Christy Layton at "clayton132@sbcglobal.net"

What Happens at Mass, part 12

Eucharist

Holy indeed! Following the Sanctus, the Eucharistic Prayers express much depth with few words and using poetic and noble language the priest petitions the Holy Spirit to come down upon the Church’s gifts of bread and wine so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. The priest takes bread, blesses it, gives it to us and says, “Take this all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.” The priest uses the present tense since at that moment he is in the person of Christ and this sacrifice reaches into the eternal sacrifice in heaven. The priest raises the Body so that all can adore but also presents it before God the Father. Similarly, the priest takes the cup saying, “This is the chalice of my Blood.” What Jesus did at the Last Supper – and what he still does now in this moment – does not pass away. Jesus uses bread and wine, basic symbols of human life together, in the context of a meal - a sacrificial Passover meal when God brought salvation to the Israelites. The Mass reveals Jesus’ death at Calvary and we are present. We join with Christ in coming to the Father. Our declaration of the Mystery of Faith underscores our faith. The rest of the Eucharistic Prayer remembers that Jesus told us to “do this in memory of me”. Thus, we remember the death and resurrection of Jesus. Then we pray, “Look, we pray, upon the oblation of your Church...” and offer the Body and Blood, to which the Church is joined, to the Father. We pray again to the Holy Spirit to transform us into what receive - the Body and Blood of Christ and, “May he make of us an eternal offering to you.” The entire assembly and community of saints are offered as a universal sacrifice to God through the High Priest who offered himself...” Nothing like Christian Eucharist happens in any other ritual of any other religion. The Eucharistic Prayer identifies our Pope, our bishop, all the clergy and all who have died. We align ourselves with Mary, Joseph and all the saints. It all leads to the great climax where the priest holds up the Body and Blood reciting the great doxology where we offer this sacrifice to the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Our response is a resounding AMEN!

A GLIMPSE OF GOD
Have you ever had a glimpse of God? Perhaps you perceived God’s presence in a quiet moment of prayer, a tender conversation with a loved one, or a difficult situation that was resolved unexpectedly. Peter, James, and John in today’s Gospel were given a glimpse of Christ’s glory on the mountain, as Jesus was transfigured before them. Abram put his faith in God and saw God’s power in a wondrous sign of covenant love. We have the promise of eternal life with God in heaven. This promise brings with it responsibility, as people who are called to live as Christ’s very own in the world. Lent is the perfect time to resolve to listen more attentively to the Lord and follow God’s ways, assured that in doing so, we put our faith in the one, true, and faithful God.

UNA VISIÓN DE DIOS

¿Alguna vez has tenido una visión de Dios? Quizás percibiste la presencia de Dios en un momento tranquilo de oración, en una conversación amable con un ser querido o en una situación difícil que se resolvió inesperadamente. En el Evangelio de hoy, Pedro, Santiago y Juan tuvieron en la montaña una visión de la gloria de Cristo, cuando Jesús se transfiguró ante ellos. Abram puso su fe en Dios y vio el poder de Dios en una maravillosa señal de amor de alianza. Tenemos la promesa de la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo. Esta promesa trae consigo misma responsabilidad, como pueblo estamos llamados a vivir en el mundo la vida misma de Cristo. La Cuaresma es el tiempo perfecto para resolver y escuchar más atentamente al Señor y seguir los caminos de Dios, con la seguridad de que, al hacerlo ponemos nuestra fe en el Dios único, verdadero y fiel.

ESCRITURA INSPIRADA

Estudiar las Escrituras inspiradas es la manera principal de saber cuál es nuestro deber.

Se necesitan voluntarios y miembros de Comité para la Hospitalidad después de Misa empezando Abril 2 y 3

Se necesitan voluntarios para armar las mesas y servir snacks y bebidas después de las Misas de Abril 2 y 3 y una vez al mes después de esto. Este es un Ministerio muy fácil y divertido y una buena manera de conocer nuevas personas y compartir con amigos. También necesitamos miembros del Comité de Hospitalidad para planear y organizar. Así solo tengas 30 minutos antes de Misa o 30 minutos después de Misa para ayudar, ¡te necesitamos! Está también es una gran oportunidad para la gente joven que necesita horas de servicio comunitario para familias que están buscando servir juntos. Para ser voluntario o unirse al Comité, por favor envíe un email o llama (o texto) a Claudia Márquez clamarquez@gmail.com 530-220-2127
